PHILADELPHIA'S OWN CREATES T SHIRTS WITH BLING

Blingateebling*...the all-in-one t shirt and necklace.

For women everywhere. Relieve stress when you dress with this 2-in-one, necklace and tee combination. Blingateebblings dress up a pair of jeans in an instant. Or, accessorize a suit to a "t." And—Tada—you're pulled together and ready to go!

Philadelphia native designer, Barbara Borejko, combines photo transferred or hand painted necklaces of her design with lightweight, fitted, 100% cotton tees in an assortment of colors. She humorously named them Blingateebblings because they're fun! And, really fool the eye. "I've gotten many compliments about my "necklace" and surprised the admirer when pointing out the illusion," says Barbara.

The collection features chains, beads, pendants...gold, silver, pearls...and more. From classic to trendy, they appeal to a wide audience. However, there is one style that really grabs. "Girls of all ages love hearts," remarked Barbara when asked which Blingateebbling was a best seller. She welcomes special design requests, such as the pendant designed for a friend involved in greyhound rescue.

The inspiration for Blingateebblings was perspiration confesses Barbara, "I found it so uncomfortable to wear necklaces—which I love—in our hot and humid Philadelphia summers. To solve this sticky problem I decided to create the illusion of jewelry on the coolest tee I could find. Voila, Blingateebblings were born."

Blingateebblings are available in S,M,L,XL,1,2 and 3X, in both long and short sleeve styles. Retail is from $35 to $45. Visit www.barbarabcreative.com and go to blingateebling for all details.
